

HOW TO GET THERE

Montegridolfo is an hour and a half drive from Bologna. It is a little town in the lower hills between Romagna and Marche, it is therefore recommended to rent a car to move around.

If you prefer to use public transportation, the nearest train station is Cattolica-S.Giovanni-Gabicce, and the travel from Bologna takes about 2 hours. From Cattolica you can either get a bus (find more information here) or let us know and we will send someone to pick you up by car.

If for any reason you can not or you do not want to rent a car, or if you have any doubt or you are in need of organisational help, please send us an email to ariylori@gmail.com (but do not wait till June to do so!)
